

What are the most important political issues impacting your career and working conditions?

While it is easy to identify many measures we oppose, we also need to develop and articulate positive policy recommendations.

Friday, March 31 late afternoon through 3:00 PM Saturday, April 1

Register at www.aftnj.org

Get involved in standing up for your professional voice in your communities, Trenton and Washington, DC.

Working groups will focus on what can be done to support education in Pre-Kindergarten to 12, Tenure Track Faculty, Adjunct Faculty and Professional Staff roles in addition to workers' rights and collective bargaining issues that impact members' contractual rights and benefits.

Also, hear from 2017 candidates for New Jersey Governor. Let's make sure our next Governor is someone who will work with us to advance the best interests of students and New Jersey's working families
